

MARANATHA FELLOWSHIP - AUSTIN TX
NICK PAPPIS: Saturday, October 18, 1986 (19:00-21:00 CST)

"Wanderer, oh wanderer in the dry desert places - Know that I've not caused you to circle the mountain, but I've called you forth, that my word might rest in your heart, and my spirit might well up within you in abundance, and flow out to others. For I put a vision and a dream in your heart, years ago, but you've let the vision and the dream die. Even though there's a facade of joy and contentment, I know your heart, says the Lord, and you've been wandering.

You've been circling a mountain without beginning, without end, -- and I would say wanderer, wanderer, when will you come to my first call? When will you come back to the word that I first spoke to you to see my ministry, and my purposes fulfilled in your heart?"

"For I'm gonna speak to you in this nights season. I'm gonna speak 'very clearly' to you: you need direction, you need refreshing, you need a renewing- an empowering. I want you to be obedient, says the Lord."

[Nick Pappis speaking]:

Now, I don't know anything. I don't know anything. But I felt that word very strong. Whatever it means, whatever it means you can tell me, er, I don't know? You don't, you don't have to tell me now, but I just felt God spoke somethin', and God wants to speak to you.
